e. To authorize the Child to obtain a learner's permit, driver's license, or state-issued identification card;

f. To authorize employment of the Child; and

g. To apply for and receive public benefits on behalf of the Child.

2. Agent has been given authorization to perform the functions listed in this authorization as a result of a voluntary action of Parents. Agent has voluntarily assumed the responsibility of performing those functions.

3. Neither Parents nor Agent has knowledge that a parent, guardian, custodian, licensed child-placing agency, or other authorized agency asserts any claim or authority inconsistent with this authorization with regard to actual physical possession or care, custody, or control of any or more of the Children;

4. To the best of each Parent's and Agent's knowledge:

a. There is no court order or pending suit affecting the parent-child relationship concerning any one or more of the Children;

b. There is no pending litigation in any court concerning:

(1) Custody, possession, or placement of any one or more of the Children; or

(2) access to or visitation with any one or more of the Children; and

c. The court does not have continuing jurisdiction concerning any one or more of the

5. This authorization is made in conformance with Chapter 34 of the Texas Family Code.

6. Parents and Agent understand that each party to this authorization is required by law to immediately provide to each other party information regarding any change in the party's address or contact information.

7. This authorization authorizes the Agent to act beginning with the Date noted above. This authorization is valid until revoked and continues in effect after the death or during any incapacity of either or both Parents.

8. The following warnings and disclosures required by statute are contained in this authorization:

a. The authorization agreement is an important legal document.

b. The parent and the relative must read all of the warnings and disclosures before signing the authorization agreement;

c. The persons signing the authorization agreement are not required to consult an attorney but are advised to do so;

d. The parent's rights as a parent may be adversely affected by placing or leaving the parent's child with another person;

e. The authorization agreement does not confer on the relative the rights of a managing or possessory conservator or legal guardian;

f. A parent who is a party to the authorization agreement may terminate the authorization agreement and resume custody, possession, care, and control of the child on demand;

g. At any time the parent may request the return of the child;

h. Failure by the relative to return the child to the parent immediately on request may have criminal and civil consequences;

i. Under other applicable law, the relative may be liable for certain expenses relating to the child in the relative's care but that the parent still retains the parental obligation to support the child;

j. In certain circumstances, the authorization agreement may not be entered into without written permission of the court;

k. The authorization agreement may be terminated by certain court orders affecting the child;

l. The authorization agreement is void unless the parties mail a copy of the authorization agreement to a parent who was not a party to the authorization agreement, if the parent is living and the parent's parental rights have not been terminated, not later than the 10th day after the date the authorization agreement is signed; and

m. The authorization agreement does not confer on a relative of the child the right to authorize the performance of an abortion on the child or the administration of emergency contraception to the child.

9. While both Parents have signed this authorization, each Parent acknowledges that, under Section 34.008(e) of the Texas Family Code, either Parent may revoke this authorization without the other Parent's consent and without the consent of Agent Parent is the sole surviving parent of the Children.. This authorization also may be terminated by other actions or events described in Section 34.008 of the Texas Family Code.

Note: Do not use this form if any the statements made in paragraph 4 above are incorrect. If any of the statements made in paragraph 4 are incorrect, an authorization agreement still may be possible, but compliance with certain provisions of Chapter 34 of the Texas Family Code is required and this form is not intended to provide that compliance.
